

WASATCH HILLS TENNIS CENTER

BUBBLE REPLACEMENT PROJECT

Dear Friends, Community Supporters, Tennis Lovers, and Donors:

The $100,000+ donations from 100+ donors in 100 days campaign, which began in late February, continues as we work our way to the $1.1 million needed for a new bubble. With 75 donors graciously adding their support, $52,000 has been raised and counting. This will be added to the 60+ previous contributors who so kindly gave towards the generous $300,000 matching grant by the George S. and Dolores Doré Eccles Foundation. Thank you all! Let us keep the effort and excitement going!

We are so grateful for the extent and breadth of our donor pool. With over 140 donors as of May 1, 2021, we are on the proverbial roll. Current supporters include a broad mix of people of all ages, professions, and backgrounds who have given generously to this important cause. The conclusion: people love public tennis and appreciate what Wasatch Hills and Liberty Park staff provide for them—a welcoming gathering place, open to all.

Starting with this newsletter we will highlight wonderful staff members at Wasatch Hills and Liberty Park Tennis Centers. This will give you a greater appreciation for what goes on behind the scenes.

In case you wonder who so meticulously maintains our tennis facilities. It is Ruben Grajales. Spencer Marchant says he could not keep the facilities running without Ruben's incredible talents. Ruben is a one-person buildings and grounds department who day in and day out (nights too) ensures that both centers operate smoothly and in top form.

Maintaining and caring for Wasatch Hills and Liberty Park Tennis Centers is a lot of work. There are upwards of 2,000 visitors each week at the two sites. Twenty-six courts, two bubbles, two clubhouses, and a lot of acreage to maintain. It is likely you have witnessed Ruben cleaning, fixing, installing, painting, or performing electrical and plumbing repair. We are fortunate to have him on our staff and the community is better off because of his dedicated efforts. We applaud him for his stellar work and genuine concern and upkeep of these facilities.

Congratulations, Ruben, and thank you, for being such an invaluable member of our crew. As you all know we have an amazing staff. You will learn more about them in future newsletters. And thanks to all of you, our miracle donors!

We need 100+ donors in the next 50 days to make gifts and pledges so we'll reach $100,000+ goal. All donations are tax deductible, checks payable to the Coach Mike's Friends of Public Tennis, a qualified 501 (c) 3.
